The Big Bug Band

2 rows of 5 is 10

The image shows a digital interface for a teaching tool. At the top, there is a red banner with the text "The Big Bug Band". Below the banner is a colorful illustration of a marching band of various insects, including ladybugs, bees, and ants, marching in a line. Below the illustration, there are two rows of five ladybugs each, arranged in a grid. Below the ladybugs, the text "2 rows of 5 is 10" is written in a simple, handwritten font. In the bottom right corner, there is a small inset image showing a ladybug and a person playing a saxophone. On the right side of the interface, there is a vertical toolbar with several icons: a home button, a copy button, a hand cursor, a red eraser, and a pencil.
