

Writing word stories

Preparation

None required.

Activity

Project the algebra tiles pictures and expressions (slide 1). Explain to the students that they will work in pairs to write a story for each. Once they have done this, have the students exchange their stories with their partner and critique each other's work. Afterward, invite the class back together and have each student present a story to the class.